

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protection. It has been effective in keeping unwanted callers from calling anytime they feel like calling. Or at least limit them. I really do think it WILL be effective in the long run. Thank You,